CHAPTER V
CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

A. Conclusion

The conclusion follows the objectives of the research proposed in Chapter I. Based on the research findings and discussion the conclusion can be drawn as follows :

1. The researcher used the figurative language and the meaning in song lyric "It Will Rain" by Bruno Mars. The researcher found 4 a figurative language that consisted of simile, methapor, personification and hyperbole.

2. The Figurative Language frequently occurred in song lyric "It Will Rain" by Bruno Mars hyperbole. The total of all figurative Language is 9 consist of similes was 1 or 10% metaphor was 1 or 10%, personification was 2 or 20% and hyperbole was 6 or 60%.

B. Suggestion

The researcher gives some suggestions to many people related to this study, they are as follow:

1. For Teacher

As a result of this research, English teachers can teach figurative language and the meaning conveyed the figurative language and should be more creative to make the teaching and learning process interesting by music as media. Especially in semantics class that discuss about figurative language, because with media, the students easily know the figurative language.

2. For Students'

The researcher suggests that discourse analysis is something that students should learn about because it helps broaden their vocabulary. The researcher hopes that students can find a way to improve their ability especially in figurative language by using the other object, such us: novel, movie, and etc.

3. For Other Researcher

For others researchers who will conduct a study with the same topic, the researcher suggests them to use this research as their reference because this research contained some useful theories. The researcher also suggests the others researchers to conduct the similar research investigating the types of figurative language found in the reading text of selected TOEFL exercises.