B. SUGGESTION

In the field of social studies, especially in the field of language studies in studying the science of analysis, the results of this study are expected to be a reference for further research, especially in studies that examine deixis analysis in a text or discourse. Not only for researching but as a reference to other literary works such as drama scripts, short stories, and other literary works. And can be a reference for literary writers who use deixis in a good study of deixis analysis ranging from people deixis, place deixis, time deixis, discourse deixis and social deixis.

Therefore, the results of this study are expected to be of benefit to learning English, especially for students, teachers and further researchers.

1. For the students after reading this paper, it is hope that understanding of the use of deixis in daily life both oral and written such as advertisements, conversations, and books.
2. For the teachers after reading this paper is expected to be able to apply the knowledge that has been learned and in order to convey back to students at school about deixis so that there is no misunderstanding about deixis.

3. For the next researcher, research on deixis analysis in a novel is very simple. There are many other papers that have not been studied. Therefore, researcher suggest further research on deixis such as deixis analysis in magazines, newspapers or brochures should be carried out.
